If you have a JPG file and need to convert it to a more printer-friendly PDF file, you've come to the right place. It's a straight-forward process that can be done on your computer's photo-viewing app, and there's no need to use a third-party app or website.Here's how to do it on a Windows or Mac computer. How to convert JPG to PDF on Windows 101. Double-click on the image you want to convert to a PDF. The image should open in Photos, the default photo-viewing app for Windows 10. If it doesn't (likely because you've changed the default app) open the Photos app and select the photo you want to convert by clicking on the file name.Quick tip: To convert more than one JPG at a time, open the Photos app, and, in the Collection tab, click the Select button in the top-right corner before clicking to select multiple files. When selected, a check mark will appear in the top-right corner of the photos. 2. Click the printer icon at the top-right of the Photos menu bar or use the keyboard shortcut Control + P.3. In the Print pop-up window, click on the arrow pointing down under Printer to open a drop-down menu. Select Microsoft Print to PDF, then click Print.4. In the File Explorer pop-up, make sure PDF is selected as the Save as type. Rename the file or keep the name as-is, choose a destination for the file, then click Save.Quick tip: You can also convert your JPG to a number of other file types, including PNG, HEIC, TIF, and more. How to convert JPG to PDF on Mac1. Double-click on the image you want to convert to a PDF. The image should open in Preview, the default photo-viewing app for Mac computers. If it doesn't (likely because you've changed the default app) open the Preview app and select the photo you want to convert by clicking on the file name.2. In the Preview menu, click File, then select Export as PDF…Quick tip: You can also convert JPG files to HEIC, JPEG-2000, OpenEXR, PNG, or TIFF in Preview. To convert a JPG to another type of file, click "Export." Abigail Abesamis Demarest 3. In the pop-up menu, change the file name (if desired), choose a destination for the file, then click Save. Keep the file name as-is or rename it. Abigail Abesamis Demarest Adobe’s PDF standard is handy whenever you need to distribute some information and be sure that it’s seen the same way by all recipients. But PDF files are also infamously tough to edit. Unless you’ve paid for Adobe Acrobat (the full version, not just the Reader), you’ll have to look for a specific tool to edit the text of PDFs. Many of these are available on various platforms, but for an easy and free method that works across all kinds of desktops and mobile devices, you can use Google Docs. If you have your PDF file ready, open drive.google.com in any browser and log in with your Google account. It’s possible to go through this process on mobile with a phone browser, so long as you do it in “desktop view,” but it’s going to be somewhat difficult—get to a full laptop or desktop PC if you can. Upload your PDF file from your local files by clicking the blue “NEW” button on the left, then “File upload.” Select your PDF and wait for it to upload to Google’s server. Once the file is in your drive, right-click or long-tap the item in Drive’s main view. Select “Open Open with,” then click “Google Docs.” The PDF document will open in a new browser tab in the Google Docs interface. From here you can edit any of the text in the PDF document as if it were a standard word processor file. some of the formatting may be a bit off thanks to Docs’ interpretation of the images and spacing in the PDF file, but all of the formatted text should be visible and editable—if it’s a larger file, Docs will even create an automatic outline separated into pages. You can edit any of the text in this window and save your work online in Google Docs for later. If you’d rather have a standard document file for an offline word processor, click “File,” then “Download as.” Here you can choose from Docx, ODT, TXT, RTF, and other formats, so you can open them in Microsoft Office (or your word processor of choice). Click on the one you want, and it will immediately be downloaded to your default desktop or phone folder. That’s it! You now have a saved, editable copy of your original PDF, compatible with any word processor. Convert from .TXT, .DOCX, .ODT, .PDF, .DOC, .HTML, .HTM, .MHT, .MHTML, .XHTML, .RTF, .EPUB, .MOBI, .PRC, .FB2, .EML, .PAGES, .PPTX, .WP, .WPD, .WPS, .CSV, .XLS, .XLSX, .XPS, .ASM, .INC, .S, .C, .CPP, .CS, .CXX, .H, .HXX, .J, .JS, .JAV, .JAVA, .PAS, .PL, .PY, .RB, .PHP, .BAS, .VB, .VBS, .XML, .LOG, .JPEG, .JPG, .BMP, .GIF, .PCX, .PNG, .PNM, .PSD, .RAS, .TGA, .TIF, .WBMPConvert to .HTML, .DOCX, .ODT, .PDF, .TXT, .RTF, .DOC, .XML 1 Right-click the PDF you want to open. If you're using a Mac and don't have a right mouse button, press Control as you click the file. This will open a context menu. 2 Select Open with. It's near the top of the menu. Another menu will expand. Advertisement 3 Click Word or Microsoft Word on the menu. This opens Word and attempts to display the PDF. 4 Click OK to convert the file. Word will convert the file to its own format and display the results. If you're converting a larger file, it can take a few minutes to complete. 5 Edit the Word document. The converted document may not have perfect page to page correspondence due to line and page breaks, graphics, and other details. Making manual adjustments may be necessary. If you downloaded the PDF from the internet, you'll see a bar at the top of the document asking if you want enable editing. Click Enable Editing so you can make changes to the file. 6 Save the converted PDF. Once you're ready to save the converted file as its own Word document, do the following: Windows — Click File, click Save As, click This PC, enter a file name, select a save location on the left side of the window, and click Save. Mac — Click File, click Save As, enter a name, select a file location, and click Save. Advertisement 1 Go to in your computer's web browser. This will open your Google Docs page if you're logged into your Google Account. If you aren't logged in, enter your email address and password when prompted. You may first have to click Go to Google Docs in the middle of the page. One caveat of using Google Docs to convert your PDF is that Google Docs will not preserve any of the PDF's photos. 2 Click the "Upload" icon. You'll see this at the top-right corner of your file list, just below the last template in the gallery. 3 Click the Upload tab. It's at the top of the "Open a file" window. 4 Click Select a file from your device. It's the blue button in the center of the window. 5 Select your PDF file and click Open. This uploads the PDF file to your Google Drive and opens a preview once it has finished uploading. 6 Click the Open with menu. It's at the top-center part of the window. If you don't see the Open with drop-down box, move your mouse to the top of the window. 7 Click Google Docs on the menu. This opens the PDF in Google Docs. If you don't see Google Docs as an option in the drop-down menu, you can add it: click Connect more apps in the drop-down menu, search for google docs, and Install to get it. 8 Save the PDF as a Word document. Now that you've opened the document in Docs, you can save it as a Microsoft Word file and download it to your computer. Here's how: Click File in the upper-left side of the Google Docs page. Select Download. Click Microsoft Word (.docx) as the format. Select a save location and/or click Save if prompted. Advertisement 1 Open Adobe Acrobat DC Pro. If you have the paid version of Adobe Acrobat, you can use it to convert your PDF to a Word document. You'll find this app in your Windows Start menu or your Mac's Applications folder. 2 Right-click the PDF you want to open. If you have Adobe Acrobat Pro (the paid version of Acrobat), you can use it to convert a PDF to a Word document. Right-clicking the file on your computer will open a context menu. If you're using a Mac and don't have a right mouse button, press Control as you click the file instead. 3 Select Open with. It's near the top of the menu. Another menu will expand. 4 Select Adobe Acrobat Pro or Adobe Acrobat Pro DC. This opens the PDF in Acrobat Pro. 5 Click Export PDF. This tool is in the right panel. A list of file types will expand.[1] 6 Click Microsoft Word as the export format. Additional options will expand. 7 Click Word Document. It's the first option on the right panel.[2] This tells Acrobat what type of document to create. 8 Click Export. Acrobat will now convert the file and prompt you to name it. 9 Name the file and click Save. Now that you've saved the PDF as a Word document, you can open and edit in in Microsoft Word. You can do this by converting the PDF into Word using Google Docs, or you can export it into Word by opening the document with the Word application. Question If I convert a PDF magazine to MS Word format, will I be able to edit or print? Yes. Question Why did the document get messed up when I used Google Drive? Tables are different, margins won't adjust and I am trying to help a friend submit a paper that is due tomorrow. This happens because Google Docs uses a different code (UI) to a PDF Document. Hence why it is a different file type. So when the document is getting converted, it tries to place everything in the right place, but looses a lot of the code. This is why you have to edit it to make everything look smart again. See more answers Ask a Question Advertisement Thanks! Thanks! Advertisement Thanks! If you have MS Word, right-click the file on your computer, select Open with, and then select Word on the menu. Click OK to allow Word to change the display format. If you downloaded the PDF from the internet, click Enable Editing at the top of the file and then click OK. Edit the file as needed, click the File menu, and select Save As. Choose a location to save the file, make sure the ""Word Document"" option is selected as the file format, and then click Save. If you don't have Word, you can use Google Docs to convert a PDF for free. But, if the PDF contains images, they may be lost during the conversion. In your web browser, navigate to docs.google.com and sign in with your Google account. Click the small folder icon at the top-right corner of the file list, click Upload, select the PDF, and then click Open to upload it. When the upload is complete, Google Docs will display a preview. Click the Open With menu at the top and select Google Docs. To download the PDF as a Word document, click the File menu, select Download, click Microsoft Word, and then click Save. If you have Adobe Acrobat Pro, you can use it to export any PDF as a Word document. First, open the PDF file with Acrobat. Then, click the File menu, select Export To, and choose Microsoft Word.” Finally, select Word Document. You can then save the file to the desired location.
